

UNDERSTANDING THE MUSLIM MINDSET

<http://www.ThePeopleOfTheBook.org>

one message, one religion, one God

Islam has always been the only true religion.

A true believer (Muslim) in Islam is one who believes in all the revealed books of God and all of His prophets up to the time that the believer lived. A true believer willingly submits to God and obeys Him without doubt or hesitation. Modern Jews are not true believers because they do not accept the Quran as the final revelation of God and they reject the prophethood of Jesus and Muhammad. Modern Christians are not true believers because they do not accept the Quran as the final revelation of God and they reject the prophethood of Muhammad. They have been duped into believing the lie of the death, burial and resurrection of the "Son of God", the heresy of original sin, and the blasphemous concept of the Trinity. They have been deceived by a corrupted, unholy Bible.

Reward or misfortune in this life are tests from God. God will reward those who do good with heaven, and the bad He will punish with hell.

Islam can never evolve or change, because it is based on the never changing final revelation of God.

differences between Islam and modern Western culture

Islam does not permit drinking, drugs, smoking, gambling, the lottery, lying, stealing, or fornication.

Alcohol is legal in the West and its consumption is out of control.

Drugs and crime are everywhere because the Western judicial system is broken and confused.

Extra-marital sex is the norm in modern Western culture, but is abhorred in Islam.

Materialism dominates the Western way of life, distracting people from submission to God.

Islam does not permit to charge interest.

The West permits idolatry and atheism under the guise of religious freedom.

Western women are public sex objects, exciting men with their immoral dress and behavior.

Muslim women are respected and protected, and dress modestly so as not to arouse the men around them.

The West accepts homosexuality as a valid lifestyle, while Islam totally rejects it.

Hollywood and the music industry are allowed by the West to export immorality throughout all the world.

The Western media distorts the nature of Islam and basically brainwashes society to reject the truth.

Islam is the only solution that can truly and permanently heal modern Western culture. The freedom of democracy without the guidance of the Quran will always be corrupted and misused.

the Holy Quran - the last revelation of God

The Quran has been conserved in its original language without any change or error.

The Quran is the pure revelation of God addressed to all people, regardless of race, color, country, continent, or nationality.

It teaches that God is evident in creation. Islam accepts scientific facts, as long as they are in line with the Quran. It rejects scientific theories, like Darwinian evolution.

The other books (OT and NT) that God revealed have been corrupted by man. They are only the Word of God in the areas in which they agree with the Quran.

Non-Muslims do not believe in the Quran and therefore cannot quote from it to argue any point whatsoever.

The Prophet Muhammad is the last prophet of God, sent to all mankind. There will be no other prophet after him and no other revelation from God. Jesus will return some day and call everyone back to Islam.

aggression and war

Muslims can never begin a war. They will only respond, if necessary, to defend their territory and their religion. There is no such thing as a Muslim terrorist, only devout Muslim believers who are defending their territory and their religion from aggressors. A Muslim is forbidden to kill a fellow Muslim. An Islamic society must treat with respect all people of the Jewish and Christian minority faiths within Muslim borders. On the contrary, the United States often starts wars. They pursue globalization so they can dominate culturally, economically, and militarily.
