

The top ten reasons to get your church involved in praying for and supporting The People of the Book, Inc.

- 10. We are committed to not becoming inflexible in our methods.
- 09. We will not replace personal ministry to the lost with organizing conferences for the saved.
- 08. We will focus on raising up committed individuals who can reproduce themselves spiritually, not on producing numbers.
- 07. We are committed to using modern technology, especially the internet, to aid in the spread of the Gospel.
- 06. We are committed to having spiritual accountability to help insure that we do not get off track.
- 05. We are one of the only ministries that is currently targeting the Muslim community in the Spanish-speaking world.
- 04. We will work towards supporting truly indigenous church movements that can be effective inside the Muslim world, as opposed to importing Western forms and culture.
- 03. We are committed to the inerrancy and authority of the 66 Books of the Holy Bible. We have a clear, detailed statement of faith, so you know exactly what we believe. You can ask any question you want and we will give you a straight answer on our doctrinal position.
- 02. We are committed to the priority of spending personal time alone with God every day in the Word and prayer, and to sharing the Gospel with those that we come into contact with in the natural course of each day.
- 01. The People of the Book, Inc. has zero administration costs. Many non-profits take out some hefty fees for administration costs. Our organization does not take out anything! We are committed to not establishing building projects and to not using a large amount of your donations to run an office and staff. We will focus our resources on the task of sharing the Gospel and raising up laborers. We are committed to seeing that every penny of your donation is administered as best as is humanly possible on our part. We will not go into debt for any reason. We will only use funds that God has actually provided. We are committed to depending on God for our financial support and to follow His lead in everything that we do to the best of our ability.
